Questions from Round 2 without consensus Response types 2.1 Has changed in its meaning over time Strongly disagree Somewhat disagree 2.2 Can describe a social concept Neither agree nor disagree Somewhat agree 2.3 Can describe an economic concept Strongly agree 2.4 Describes changes/impacts that are irreversible over any time scale 2.5 Describes changes/impacts that are reversible over any time-scale 2.6 Describes changes/impacts that are avoidable 2.7 Cannot be expressed universally (i.e. is always context-dependent) 3.1 Relates to the social impact of traditional livelihood loss/degradation 3.2 Relates to the social impact of traditional culture loss/degradation 3.3 Relates to the social impact of conflict between 3.4 Relates to the social impact of human rights violation 3.5 Relates to the economic impact of financial loss to fishers/fishing enterprises 3.6 Relates to the economic impact of financial loss to national economies 3.7 Any damage to a seabed habitat from fishing (or any other anthropogenic activity) is destructive 3.8 Any mortality or injury to a non-target species from fishing (or any other anthropogenic activity) is destructive 3.9 Proportional loss of a target species from fishing that exceeds its biologically safe limits is destructive 3.10 Fishing activity (or any other anthropogenic activity) that infringes the legitimate rights of other fishers is destructive 4.1 Is the same (conceptually) as the term 'illegal, unreported and unregulated (IUU) fishing' 4.2 Is the same (conceptually) as the term 'fishing that causes significant adverse impact' 4.3 Shares some characteristics with the term 'overfishing' 4.4 Shares some characteristics with the term 'illegal, unreported and unregulated (IUU) 5.1 All fishing practices can be destructive (if not carried out appropriately or maintained at an appropriate level) 5.2 Poor or low capacity management – rather than specific fishing practices - determines how destructive a fishing activity is 5.3 All practices that use 'legitimate' fishing gears can be adapted or mitigated to reduce their impact to an appropriate level 5.4 Only some practices that use 'legitimate' fishing gears can be adapted or mitigated to reduce their impact to an appropriate level

-50

-25

-100

Figure shows all responses for the 25 statements that did not reach a threshold of 70% consensus, shown as a percentage of all responses. Positive values indicate agreement with the statement, negative values indicate disagreement.

25